

2c*NOON EDITION*2c*AUSTRIA BREAKS OFF WITH BRAZIL

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 6, NO. 167

Chicago, Friday, April 13, 1917

398

AMERICAN AUTO TRUCK CLAIMS NEW VICTIM

Newsboy Run Down at 79th and Halsted Sts.—Seriously Hurt—Law to Prevent Such Accidents Tied Up
by Fair, Armour's and Consumers Co.

Although Dominick Fabia of 227 W. 34th street lies in the Auburn Park hospital with a fractured jaw and possibly a broken skull, the driver of the Chicago American auto truck which struck him last night was allowed to go free by the police of the Auburn Park station.

At the hospital today the boy's injuries were described as very serious and there is a chance that he may die. The police report on the accident, however, simply states that the victim was slightly bruised about the head.

Dominick was crossing 79th street at Halsted, where he has two paper stands. In the middle of the street he hesitated as an American truck

